SECURITY REGULATIONS, CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

1. Security Regulations, Central Intelligence Group, dated 3 June 1946, are rescinded effective 1 November 1946, and will be returned to the Chief, Security Division, on that date. Revised Security Regulations Central Intelligence Group, dated 20 October 1946, will be issued 1 November 1946 on the basis of one copy per office or room, and, with the exception of paragraph 13, will be in effect as of that date. Paragraph 13, subject: "Entrance to CIG Buildings," will not be implemented until further notice. Therefore, the current pass system will remain in effect.

2. The attention of all members CIG is directed to cover sheet which reads: "The Security Regulations contained herein will be complied with by all members of the Central Intelligence Group. All previous security rules published by this organization will be returned at once to the Security Officer, CIG, for destruction. All members will submit to the Security Officer within five days after receipt of this document, a certificate (see Appendix A) to the effect that they have read and understand the contents of this booklet and Sections I, II, III, and IV, AR 300-5, dated 6 March 1946."
